Ophthalmology Futures Asia Forum 2017

Dear Colleagues,

Welcome to Ophthalmology Futures Asian Forum 2017. After 5 successful European Forums and our inaugural Asian Forum in Tokyo in 2014, we are delighted to host our second Asian Forum in Singapore.

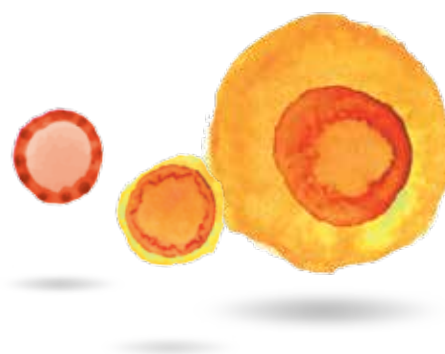

Each Forum aims to present a new perspective with regard to innovation in the ophthalmic sector. This forum comes at a particularly exciting time for innovation in Ophthalmology and with a timely focus on innovation in Asia.

We would like to thank our advisory board, programme committee, corporate presenters, sponsors and eminent faculty for their invaluable support and assistance. We hope that you will enjoy the format and gain inspiration from the company presentations and panel discussions. We will endeavour to make the meeting as interactive as possible.

Turn back time European Forum 2016: Copenhagen

Our most recent Ophthalmology Futures European Forum, held in September 2016 in Copenhagen, was a huge success with an audience of over 350 industry professionals. The programme included 23 private company presentations including our popular Shark Tank and a View from the Top provided by the global CEO's of Alcon and Shire and the US CEO of Santen, moderated by James Mazzo.

The 2017 European Forum will take place in Lisbon, Portugal on 05 October. For more information and to register please visit: ophthalmology-futures.com

Pertinent topics to our industry and small companies showing what it takes to bring products to market and to treat patients.

Leonard Borrmann
Divisional Vice President, R&D, Abbott

“Many of the things that we see here are going to be making a difference in the lives of patients in five to seven years from now.”

Robert Warner
Global Franchise Head, Vision Care, Alcon

“Your long-standing support for us via Ophthalmology Futures Forum was a tremendous podium for SalutarisMD getting our message out about episcleral brachytherapy.

Our funding only came about because of, in part, Ophthalmology Futures Forum. Thank you!”

Laurence Marsteller
Chief Executive Officer, Salutaris Medical Devices
