

2013 Amsterdam Ophthalmology Futures Forums

The 2013 Amsterdam Ophthalmology Futures Forum , the second held in Europe, focused heavily on pharma and anterior segment surgical innovation with particular emphasis on the technology and business opportunities related to Femtosecond Laser Assisted Cataract Surgery, as well as reimbursement challenges in different regions of Europe and other parts of the world. Corporate leaders and ophthalmologists debated exit strategies for small companies and structured milestone deals to break deadlocks in negotiation processes.